OPENING OF THE LOCAL SEASON.

The Chicago racing season of 1898 opens this afternoon. It is true that Lakeside track is in the adjoining state of Indiana, but its support comes from Chicago and to all practical intents and purposes it is a Chicago track. There is there are now 23 horses, one division going to Chicago and the other to St. Louis. Others that will go to St. Louis are J. H. Smith, L. W. Benson, Alex Shields, T. D. Carter, W. J. Steele & Co., J. R. Bagley, H. Higgins and M. Mack. To Louisville go the horses of T. C. McDowell, Clay & Woodford, John E. Madden, Charles every prospect that the meeting at Lakeside will be a success. The stables overflow with horses, and, that good ones are among them, to-day's entries amply attest. The meeting of such fast ones as Imp, Paul Griggs and Dr. Sheppard at a mile is alone worth a journey to see and the other racing attractions are manifold.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Charley Hughes, the well-known trainer, will not have charge of the second division of 'Gene Leigh's stable, as was announced in this column some time ago. Yesterday Hughes notified Leigh that he intended training a stable of his own, the nucleus of which will be Donator and Hanlon. Hughes will add a number of good ones to his string and commence his campaign at Louisville. Leigh at once made arrangements with Tony McCafferty, a brother of Charles McCafferty, to take charge of the string he will race at St. Louis. Leigh will take the first division of his stable and depart for Roby the same evening. There has been no disagreement between Leigh and Hughes. The latter thinks he has better prospects with his own stable, hence the course he has taken.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Of the destination of the horses that have been taking part in the racing at Newport the Enquirer says: "Most of the horses will go to Chicago, St. Louis and Louisville. The stables that have gone or will go to Chicago are as follows: Chris Brossman, W. M. Rogers, Clint De Witt, C. H. Williams & Co., D. C. Shafer, C. C. McCafferty, J. R. Hand, C. A. Freudenberger, E. T. Graves. Among the horses in that consignment are: Imp, Richard J, Miss Gussie, Meddler, Balk Line, What Next, McCarren, Pop Dixon, Albert S. Lobengula, W. C. T. & Co. 'Gene Leigh will divide his big stable, in which Anderson, M. R. Harned, S. K. Hughes, J. B. Respass, W. H. May & Son James Smith and others.

Edward Fee, G. H. Brown and L. Winder will go from here to Detroit to race on the Canadian circuit."

Ed Corrigan has leased the Monument Ranch, a few miles out of Sacramento, and will send to it those of his gallopers that he does not deem worthy of being sent east or which need a let-up. For some time past the big turfman has had his horses turned out at Brentwood Farm, a model establishment near Antioch, but of course he will save a lot of money every year by having his own place, for be it known that he has not far from fifty gallopers in California. Mr. Corrigan has a number of young Riley mares out here, and as the Monument Farm is not far from Rancho del Paso, will have an opportunity to breed them to some of the celebrities that make their home upon "the grant." The veteran turfman, who heretofore has bred horses at a farm near Midway, Ky., will be a good addition to our list of breeders, and doubtless many good winners will come from the Monument Farm.—Breeder and Sportsman.

The New York Sun says that Dr. Catlett is the most advanced of any of the horses training at the Island track. Ben Brush is doing nice, steady gallops, probably with the view of the Suburban Handicap. Lehman, another handicap horse, covered a mile in 1:49. Among the three-year-olds at Gravesend track, Previous has shown the best form. The two-year-olds at the track are doing well. Philip J. Dwyer's colt Miller covered three furlongs in 36 seconds. M. F. Dwyer's best ones have shown halves in 50 seconds. Wednesday Tom Welch trotted out a handsome pair of youngsters that covered half a mile in 50 seconds flat.

The more or less astute and for reasons of his own, conservative, Broadchurch of The Spirit of The Times, comments on Presbyterian as follows:

"The fact that they, (J. W. Schorr & Son), own a three-year-old named Presbyterian might suggest the supposition that the Schorrs are Protestants and Presbyterians. They are not—but are classed as pretty strict Catholics."

Could it be possible that John W. Schorr bought Presbyterian after he had been named, and well named too—as he is by Preston-pans and Preston-pans and the Covenanter and Presbyterian connection is keenly historical—by Mr. Rogers, who trained the Singlerly horses last year? The obtuseness of comments about the turf by off-hand critics is not healthy. Here is an instance. Presbyterian, by the way, is doing well and was more than ordinarily honest in both the Singlerly & Rogers and Schorr stables last year. From May 10, in 1897, he ran 34 races, won 18 times, was second 8 times (once by disqualification), third 6 times, and unplaced but twice. His name suggests the sturdiness of action which marked the original Presbyterians.

H. Forsland, our San Francisco correspondent, writes: "The reopening of Washington Park and the certainty of some hundred days' racing at Chicago, together with the poor prospects from adverse weather conditions in our country districts, have combined to induce the California Jockey Club to abandon their proposed summer circuit with meetings at Sacramento, Los Angeles and other points. This is a wise decision on their part, for, under existing circumstances, the venture could not have been a profitable one. It will also very materially assist the success of the Montana season and relieve the strain of continuous racing in this state."

PLAUDIT'S KENTUCKY DERBY.

The Kentucky Derby of 1898 has passed into turf history with the handsome son of Himyar and Cinderella, Plaudit, the winner. The Tennessee Derby winner, Lieber Karl, was second and Isabey third. It was a stirring struggle down to the wire in which Simms' superior strength and a five pounds pull in the weights told in favor of lucky John Madden. The closeness of the contest will lend interest to the next meeting of the two thoroughly good colts.

The tabled history of the Kentucky Derby is as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The stables that won as much as $500 at the Newport meeting were as follows: E. O. Pepper, $2,823; H. E. Leigh, $1,658; Gus Straus, $1,420; W. H. Laird, $1,165; D. R. Harness, $975; R. Rome, $888; J. H. Smith, $815; D. C. Shafer, $810; Steele & Co., $717; W. H. May & Son, $682; B. Martin, $670; C. H. Williams, $660; Donohue & Farrell, $650; J. T. Weaver & Co., $556; W. Showalter, $544; James Smith, $536; J. E. Madden, $531; W. A. McConnell, $520; W. E. Fielding, $511.

Turner quit the Newport meeting with a long lead among the winning jockeys, with nineteen winning mounts to his credit, almost an average of one a day. Joe Hill and Sullivan were tied for second place, each having ridden nine winners. L. Smith comes next with eight winners; C. Clay, Sheppard and Aker each landed seven first past the post; Perkins and Mathews each finished first six times; Everett, five; C. Graham, four; P. Campbell, three, and J. Perkins, Southard, McDowell, H. Williams, Nutt, J. Gardner, Overton and Rymal each two. The other fourteen races were won by as many different boys.

A. F. Withe & Co., of Chicago, have purchased the following Rancho del Paso-bred 2-year-olds: ch. f, by Islington—May Dunbar; ch. f, by Rouseau (brother to Russell)—Lady Leinster; b. f, by Darebin—Carolina; ch. f, by Tenny—Guilia; ch. c, by Preston-pans—Filena; b. c, (brother to Rebel Jack), by Order—Nokomis. The youngsters will be shipped to Chicago in a week or so.—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

Sid Reagan, who claimed Hermoso and Hohenzollern out of selling races and was afterwards ordered to return them on the ground that he was claiming for Billy Timmons, was heard in his own defense and the stewards decided to recommend the Turf Congress that his license be refused and he be denied the privileges of all Turf Congress tracks. San Francisco Examiner.

C. T. Patterson reached Morris Park Friday with Ornament, Macy, Algol, May Hempstead and W. Overton. Eastern critics are pleased with the quintette and most particularly with Ornament's evident good condition.

Frank McMahon (McCarthy & Co.) has shipped his string of half dozen horses, with Pat Morrissey at the head, to Denver. After the meeting there he will take in the Montana circuit.

Among the starters in the City of Mexico races, April 17, we notice Sepoy, Artemus, Senator Morgan, Brametta, Morgan G and Miss Cunningham, all well known to California racegoers.

Colonel Jack Chinn will be the starter at Louisville and Latonia, while Caldwell will handle the flag at Oakley. "Kit" Chinn has been engaged to start at the St. Louis meeting.

After Joe Levy won last week Barney Schreiber promptly turned him over to Thorpe as a present and Thorpe as promptly got rid of the colt by turning him over to his valet.

Charles Boots will ship six horses to Brooklyn next week. The Roman, Borgia and Instalar are in the string.—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

"Virginia" Bradley is coming to Chicago soon with some twenty odd racehorses, the redoubtable Traverser at the head and a lot of young Blitzens in the rear.

Fleur de Lis is to be declared out of the Brooklyn Handicap, but she may go to the post for the Suburban.—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

Starter Caldwell has been reappointed for Ingleside next season. His work the past season has been uniformly successful.

Eddie Jones was given a rehearing by the stewards of the California Jockey Club. No decision was reached.

Winner—Ch. f, by El Rio Rey—Emma.
Start good. Won easily. Hard drive for place. Emma was best and best ridden. Marie was used a lot and weakened at the finish. Prince, off slowly, closed a lot of ground under a bad ride. Watch this colt. St. Angelo had early speed but could not carry it. Lemon stopped too.

Winner—Br. c, by Take Notice—Picnic.
Start fair. Won very easily; next five driving. Excursion is a good colt and in fine form. Tab him for better things. Hooker ran a good race, as good as he can run. He is not consistent but is fit. Was poorly ridden. Mallakawa was not well managed and came strong in stretch. He needs strong riding. Watch him. The Miller was a good colt at end. Began slowly. Britomartis had all kinds of bad luck. Was cut off at start, in rear and on the stretch turn. Bad riding caused the mishaps. Throw out the race and tab her. Simi ran a dull race. Zacatosa was off badly.

Scratched—Anne Page, 98; Crossmolina, 98; Bly, 98; San Augustine, 101; Master Lee, 101.
Overweights—Excursion, 3 pounds.

Time, 12½, 24½, 49½, 56½.

Winner—B. g, by Inverness—Virgin.
Start good. First three driving hard. Malay should have won. He was best. Jockeys reversed he would have beaten E Come. Got away slowly, closed ground throughout and finished like a lion. E Come was well ridden and lucky. Is fit and fast. Watch him. Ojai was used too much and weakened in the final pinch. Was sharply cut off in the turn into the stretch and at start. Was second best. Has a lot of speed. Also Ran did—about as he should. Vertner likes distance off. Was outclassed. Obsidian is a neeromancer and a rogue. He wasn't well ridden. Throw the race out. Parasseuse is fast, but a coward.

Winner—Blk. h, 5, by Fonso—Belle of Nantura.
Start good. A keen race. Hard drive by two leaders. Perhaps Satsuma was best. He was not perfectly handled. Denny was in front and stood the closing drive most gamely. Is at his best. Ostler Joe has staled. He is not a sturdy horse.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:03, 1:16, 1:28½.

Winner—B. c, by Clieyeden—Orange Leaf.
Start good. Won in a hard drive. Antonio, off flying, was lucky and won all the way. He could not have won had he met interference. He is fit. Watomba, an acrobat, ran more than her race. She was not well ridden. Is cherry ripe. Missioner weakened at end as though short. Has a lot of speed. Watch him. Throw out Elsmore's race. He is an acrobat. Duke of York closed a lot of ground. Was not well ridden. Tab him. Finnegan ran below the mark. Tab him too. He was badly ridden. Will do best at a route. Ashley ran short. So did Nita.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:02½, 1:14½.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Salvator—Iris.
Start good. Won in a gallop. Hard drive of five behind. Mateo was best ridden and had a clear course. McAllister ran above par. He was lucky too. Mamie Scott was cut off as the field got into motion and when it spread for the home run. Made up loss between points and was thus used a lot. She's good. Watch her. Star ran a good race. He is in form. Was not any too well handled. Charles A can win when properly placed. Jones isn't much, but will do best at a route. Throw out Zarro's race. Bad riding killed him off. Ricardo and Alma had early speed. Both stopped and were eased. The others got away badly.
Scratched—Gallant, 105.
